Massage Nex - amethyst

A waterproof and air-filled support with nubs for the neck. The material Ruton is odourless, very resilient (up to 150kg) and latex-free.

What does the application do?

Tensions in the neck area are released. The acupuncture points specifically stimulate sensory perception and address the neck muscles. Further muscle areas can be loosened during a self-massage.

How does it work?

The Massage Nex®, can be placed on the floor, e.g. on a mat or even on the edge of the bathtub. Then just put your neck on the mat, close your eyes and relax. For a self-massage the head and neck area can be moved over the product accordingly.

Tip:

"When I lie down on the floor mat, I cannot find a comfortable position for my head. With the Massage-Nex® I can support my neck perfectly and fix it gently. So now my head is also in a comfortable position. The nubs feel soft and stimulating. Through light head movements I can loosen my neck muscles additionally. This also works excellently while I take a relaxing bath. The surface of the Massage Nex® is waterproof and can be washed off easily. The Massage Nex® is simply to feel good."

Technical data:

- Dimensions: 20 x 10.5 cm
- Weight: approx. 350 g
- Load capacity: 150 kg

What does it do?

The Relax-Nex® can contribute to general relaxation and stress management. It is also ideal for meditation exercises.

Just put on the head and let it be carried by the cuddly air cushion, during meditation, sunbathing and sports, or in the bathtub. The Relax-Nex® is equipped with a needle valve, i.e. you can vary and individually adjust the air filling with a standard needle pump (see TOGU ball pump, not included).

Tip:

"Actually the name says it all. For me it is pure relaxation after a hard day at work. I put the Relax-Nex® under the back of my head-neck transition.
